AFTERMATH ~ Living in Light of a Risen Savior

Easter is a glorious day! As one old song says, "it is the greatest day in history." The question we will be addressing in the coming weeks is how the reality of Jesus' resurrection affects the living of our everyday life. What changes in our lives after the celebration.

For the next several weeks, we will be looking in the first two chapters of the book of Acts to see how the first believers lived out their faith in light of the resurrection. They have left us a great example of how to follow a risen Savior.

~ Dr. Donn S. Chapman, Senior Pastor

Series: Aftermath

Week: 3

May 15 & 16, 2021

I. Jesus is COMING back!

⁶So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" ⁷He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by his own authority....⁹And when he had said these things, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. ¹⁰And while they were gazing into heaven as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white robes, ¹¹and said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven."

(Acts 1:6-7, 9-11)

II. It all starts in ISRAEL.

⁸Who has ever seen anything as strange as this? Who ever heard of such a thing? Has a nation ever been born in a single day? Has a country ever come forth in a mere moment? But by the time Jerusalem's birth pains begin, her children will be born.

(Isaiah 66:8 NLT)

III. Jesus' coming is part of a BIGGER PLAN.

³Then the Lord will go out to fight against those nations, as he has fought in times past. ⁴On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, east of Jerusalem. And the Mount of Olives will split apart, making a wide valley running from east to west. Half the mountain will move toward the north and half toward the south. ⁵You will flee through this valley, for it will reach across to Azal. Yes, you will flee as you did from the earthquake in the days of King Uzziah of Judah. Then the Lord my God will come, and all his holy ones with him.

(Zechariah 14:3-5 NLT)

IV. Are YOU Ready?

¹⁵We tell you this directly from the Lord: We who are still living when the Lord returns will not meet him ahead of those who have died. ¹⁶For the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. First, the believers who have died will rise from their graves. ¹⁷Then, together with them, we who are still alive and remain on the earth will be caught up in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Then we will be with the Lord forever. ¹⁸So encourage each other with these words.

(1 Thessalonians 4:15-18 NLT)
